Clonard Solemn Novena In Honour of Our Mother of Perpetual Help

The Solemn Novena is a wonderful festival of faith for all. It is a time to celebrate and renew our faith as a community. We pray with Mary and give thanks for God's outpouring of abundant graces and crazy love. Come and join us. All are welcome.

Novena Theme

"Let us Dream" Pope Francis

This year's Novena Theme explores what times of crisis can teach us about how to handle upheaval of any kind in our own lives and the world at large. We are inspired to meet the challenge of our age—to emerge from the COVID-19 pandemic with deeper connections and more just institutions. While we wait and plan, we are encouraged to look for the "overflow"—for the grace that moves us beyond preconceived ideas toward unexpected and creative encounters.

Novena Preachers

Rev Steve Stockman is minister at Fitzroy Presbyterian Church — famed for its peace process collaboration with Clonard Monastery in West Belfast. He is co-founder of the Four Corners Festival and writes a regular blog, Soul Surmise, and is often moved to poetry (and song). Latest Stories BOOK REVIEW: A Papal blueprint for a fairer future.

Rev. Dr. Ruth Patterson was the first woman to be ordained a minister of the Presbyterian Church of Ireland. She has been a Presbyterian minister who for almost 30 years has been Director of Restoration Ministries, She graduated BA in Spanish and Politics in 1965 and with a Diploma in Social Work in 1966 from Queen's University, Belfast.

Neil Foley lives near Wexford Town in the Diocese of Ferns and is involved in several prayer and music ministries. His latest collaborations are on the Hook of Faith digital evangelisation project and with the Mustard Seeds contemporary worship group. He is an environmental scientist. He works frequently with our Redemptorist Parish Mission teams.

Peter Burns, C.Ss.R is the current Rector of Clonard having previously held the post from 2002-2008. Born in Inishowen in Co Donegal, he moved to north Belfast at the age of 10. After attending Holy Family Primary School and St Malachy's College, he went on to undertake his Redemptorist training and was ordained in 1968. Fr Peter is an experienced and 'sought after' preacher.

Traffic & Parking

The Clonard Novena draws thousands of people each day to our Church and local community. We ask motorists to follow the directions of the stewards in the car park and to have special consideration for local residents and their parking requirements. We ask people, when possible, to car share or to use public transport.

Clonard: A Safe Place For All

The Redemptorists in Ireland uphold the highest standards for safeguarding children and vulnerable adults. Please ensure that children are accompanied at all times and that Clonard remains a safe environment by reporting any concerns to the Designated Liaison Person, Mr. Phil Mortell on the details below: 00353 87225 2415 or phil.mortell@gmail.com
